ScoutMyTrip is an online platform for road planning

Bengaluru -April 13, 2017. RedNewswire/-

ScoutMyTrip is an online road-trip planning startup, has raised an undisclosed amount in seed round from Nation Lab; a Mumbai-based co-working space provider and startup accelerator.

The funds raised will be used to to expand the team and develop sales and marketing strategies.

The company was founded by Deepak Ananth and Vineet Rajan in March 2016. It has developed a platform wherein users can discover and plan a road trip. It enables travellers to discover en route travel services such as petrol bunks, restrooms, additional tourist activities, eating joints, book accommodation, and more.
